

HEARN

22, 24, 26 AND 30 WEST FOURTEENTH-ST.

The following are respectfully submitted.
They are all new.
Bought
at the lowest prices can obtain.
To be sold at the lowest prices
any one can name for goods of equal quality.

Would You Buy
REAL LACE CURTAINS
At Price of Imitation?
IF SO
COME ANY DAY THIS WEEK AND FIND
THE BEST VALUES THAT YOU EVER SAW.

A Thousand Pairs as follows:
At $3.00 Hand-wrought Tabor; worth $7.00
At $5.00 Heavy borders; worth $10.00
At $7.00 Four yards long; worth $14.00
At $9.00 Renaissance; worth $18.00 and finer up to sixty dollars.
Including the most costly Irish Point, Tambour, Cluny and Brussels Point.
At $7.00 Nottingham Lace Curtains; worth $2.00
At $1.00 Scotch Lace Curtains; worth $3.00
At $2.00 Irish Point Lace Curtains; worth $6.00
At $3.00 Irish Point Lace Curtains; worth $7.00

REVERSIBLE SILK CURTAINS of the finest and heaviest qualities—Exquisite Colorings and Novel Designs.
NINE, TWELVE AND EIGHTEEN DOLLARS; none of which can be duplicated for less than Double.
ALSO
Goods by the yard to match above.
Sixty-nine Cents; worth $2.00
Ninety-eight Cents; worth $3.00
One Dollar Ninety-eight; worth $5.00

AT THREE DOLLARS AND EIGHTEEN CENTS, ITALIAN AND DANISH SILK CURTAINS.
$1.00 worth $12.00 $6.00 worth $14.00
$1.00 worth $12.00 $1.00 worth $2.00
At $1.00 Silk Chenille Portieres; modified cordony and plain tops; worth $10.00
At $1.00 Finest Silk Chenille; High Art Dado; worth $12.00
At $1.00 Figured Saxony Chenille Portieres; 54 inches wide—twenty styles; worth $18.00
At $1.00 Silk Chenille Portieres;
worth $22.00

Tapestries.
At $1.00 Double Shantung Petticoats; worth $5.00
At $1.00 Extra heavy Petticoats; worth $1.25
At $1.00 Spun Silk Tapestries; worth $1.69
At $1.00 Silk Warp Tapestries; worth $4.00
At $2.00 and $3.75 Others finer; worth $5.00 and $6.00

ART EMBROIDERIES.
From the largest stock of novelties ever shown in this city you can easily make selection at popular prices—An assortment comprising everything new in Hand and Machine Embroidery, including most exquisite designs in China Silk, Window, Mantel and Sofa Draperies and Plush and Felt Laminations, Plush and Table Covers.
Here are a few quotations.
All New Goods.
Felt Laminations—embroidered 98c; worth $2.00
Embroidered Plush Table Scarfs $2.49; worth $5.00
Embroidered Plush Mantel Draperies 2.98; worth $6.00
Hand Embroidered Plush Laminations 4.98; worth $7.00 Figured Plush Mantel Draperies 4.49; worth $8.00 Emb'd Plush Piano Scarfs—2 1/2 yds 5.98; worth $9.00 Plush Piano Draperies, with front piece attached for Uprights 7.98; worth $12.00 Elegant Plush Mantel Draperies 12.50; worth $20.00

FLANNELS.
At Thirty-four Cents
Fancy Striped Flannels—all colors; worth 50
At Forty-nine Cents
Fancy Shaker Flannel Skirt Petticoats; worth 90
At Four Cents and Seven-eighths Canton Flannels; worth 12 1/2
At Five Cents and Three-quarters
Gray Flannels; worth 15
At a Dollar Thirty-five one hundred pieces
EMBROIDERED FLANNELS
of the finest quality, such as are usually sold at $2.00.

FRIDAY, AS USUAL, BARGAIN DAY.

HOTEL BERESFORD,
N. W. Corner 51st-st. and Central Park, West.
One Block from Elevated Station. With Park on two sides.
OPPOSITE ART AND NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUMS.

Will be ready for occupancy Oct. 1, in suites of four or more rooms—designed especially for families who wish the comforts of permanent home without care and trouble of housekeeping. For terms, &c., apply on premises, or at Hotel Winthrop, 7th-ave. and 125th-st.

A. S. WALKER, Owner.

UP IN BUSY HARLEM.
DEMAND FOR BETTER HOMES.
PEOPLE DO NOT WANT CHEAP FLATS—EX-AMPLES OF THIS.

That people who go from the city to the country during the summer months nowadays arrange to stay until October 1 instead of September 1 is demonstrated by the way houses and flats are rented in Harlem, which contains probably more homes in proportion to the number of the buildings there than any other part of the city. There are few business houses in comparison with the downtown districts, consequently when the people begin to return to town the real estate agents up there are the first to observe it, because they have little to do with business blocks. Many of the families that had children returned about the first of September so their children could begin school at the opening of the school year. The extremely bad weather of the last week has driven many more from the country, but the real estate agents say that they have many applications for houses and flats, beginning with October 1. Some remarks of Ransom E. Wilcox, of the real estate firm of Wilcox & Shelton, at No.
245 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st., concerning the course of real estate in Harlem are interesting and deserve serious attention.

According to Mr. Wilcox the building of cheap flats has been greatly overdone, and apartments that rent from $20 to $30 a month are a drug on the market.
So many have been built in excess of the demand for them that rents have steadily decreased during the last three years. It does not always appear that such is the case from the prices paid for such apartments, but often to secure a tenant a landlord will give him the use of the flat the first month and often the first two months free.
These and other rebates often bring the price down to about a year's rent. He must also be careful of in some cases as much as $20 a month, providing the tenant stays a year. He must also be careful of that several more have been built in Harlem, and that in view of the possibility of a hard winter, there is a scarcity of good private houses. There are few good houses for rent or for sale. He is strongly of the opinion, from personal observation, that the builders who are putting up good houses and can afford to wait a reasonable length of time to sell their property are making money.

A. Ward Jewell, a real estate dealer, of No. 202 West One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st., talked in the strain. He believes also that there are not enough good flats. He thinks so from the fact that he has an opportunity to rent dozens of eight or nine-room and bath flats that would command from $200 to $1,000 a year. He has one steam heated flat with an elevator in the building. There are only two or three houses of this description in Harlem, and Jewell is convinced that several more have been built in Harlem, and
that in view of the possibility of a hard winter, there is a scarcity of good private houses. There are few good houses for rent or for sale. He is strongly of the opinion, from personal observation,
that the builders who are putting up good houses and
can afford to wait a reasonable length of time to sell their property are making money.

SIMPSON, CRAWFORD
& SIMPSON.

Preliminary Exhibit of
FALL AND WINTER
NOVELTIES
1889-1890.

We take great pleasure in announcing that our preparations for the Fall and Winter Season of 1889-90 are on a larger and grander scale than ever before.
Every manufacturer of note in the Staple and Fancy Dry Goods market of the world is represented in our various Departments. In a word, we offer a "feast" of things beautiful, useful and necessary for personal wear and household requirements—all strictly new goods. As to our prices, they will speak for themselves, as usual.

6th Ave. and 19th Street.

FURNITURE.
R. J. HORNER & CO.,
Furniture Makers and Importers, 61, 63 and 65 West 23d Street.

FALL AND WINTER SEASON, 1889-90.

LARGEST EXHIBIT OF RELIABLE AND AR-TISTIC FURNITURE EVER SEEN IN THIS COUNTRY.

Novelties from the Paris Exposition.
Novelties from the London markets.
Novelties from the Vienna markets.
Thousands of new articles of American production and our own manufacture.

Inexpensive Novelties.
Onyx Tables, Marble Antiquities Tables, Venetian-Marble Tables, Nest Tables, Gilt and Gilt Tables, Gilt Chairs, French Wicker Chairs in Oriental covers, $7.50 to $9.00.
English Brass and Iron Bedsteads from $20.00 to $50.00.

To judge of the effect of some of the latest and newest things in Furniture when placed in position, see our Specimen Furnished Rooms.

Prices moderate throughout and in plain figures. A visit of inspection by all intending purchasers of Furniture, whether requiring medium priced or expensive goods, will be well repaid.

POLICEMEN HURT BY ELECTRICITY.

THE TELEGRAPH LINE WAS CHARGED WITH THE SUBTLE POWER FROM AN ELEC-TRIC LIGHT WIRE.

The telegraph instruments in the East Twenty-second-st., East Thirty-fifth-st., East Sixty-seventh-st., and Grand Central Police stations were disabled for a time early on Friday morning when an electric light wire fell across the main telegraph line of the Police Department on the East Side of the city. At the Grand Central Station Sergeant Quintard noticed the sputtering of his instrument and made a rash attempt to disconnect the wires. He received a shock that felled him to the floor, and he was insensible for a few minutes.
Druggist Hetherington administered restoratives and Quintard was well later except that his hands had been burned slightly in several places. He sent a roundman to the East Thirty-fifth-st. station to transmit a message to Headquarters, giving notice that the wire was disabled. Sergeant Devney, at the Thirty-fifth-st. station, made an attempt to send the message by telegraph, but he also received a shock that lamed him for a few minutes. The relays in the instruments were burned out and had to be replaced.

FALL OPENING.

FRENCH TRIMMED BONNETS
and Round Hats,
Mantles and Wraps,
Dress Trimmings
AND
Millinery Novelties,
Tuesday and Wednesday,
September 17 and 18,
JAMES G. JOHNSON,
8 East 14th-st.,
NEAR 5TH-AVE.

RECIPROCITY WARMLY ADVOCATED.

UNVEILING A BRONZE STATUE OF GRANT.

EXERCISES AT FORT LEAVENWORTH, KAN.— SENATOR INGALLS ONE OF THE ORATORS.

Fort Leavenworth, Kan., Sept. 14.—The statue of General Grant was unveiled here today. Excursions had been made up from the adjoining States of Missouri and Nebraska, and the city was taxed to its utmost in entertaining the thousands of visitors. The occasion was made a holiday in the city of Leavenworth, and as much a holiday at the fort as the discipline of the troops ever allows. The public buildings in the city were decorated, and from each staff on the fort floated the National colors. At 1 p. m. the troops from Fort Leavenworth, under command of General A. McD. McCook, commanding officer at the post, were formed to prepare for the part they were to take in the ceremonies. They consisted of five companies of Infantry, four troops of cavalry and one battery of light artillery.
In the city a procession was formed at the same hour. It was made up of five divisions, as follows:
First, home veterans; second, visiting and resident G. A. R. Posts, and the Sons of Veterans; third, the Bandanna Club of Leavenworth, Knights Templar and Knights of Pythias; fourth, the Garfield Rifles and benevolent societies; fifth, the Mayors of Kansas City, Leavenworth, and several Kansas cities, with their respective city councils.
The line of march was from Main and Shawnee sts. to the railway station, where a special train was entered, which carried the people to the fort, where the Government troops were drawn up to receive them. Here the procession reformed, and marched to the grounds where the monument stands. The troops were massed around the veiled figure. Behind them were stationed the G. A. R. posts and uniformed societies.
The Rev. E. F. Holland, Chaplain of the Department of Kansas, G. A. R., opened the ceremonies with prayer.
Brigadier-General Wesley Merritt, U. S. A., commanding the Department of Missouri, reviewed the work of the Grant Monument Association, by which the statue was erected, and of which he is president, and explained how the cost of the tribute had been defrayed by public subscriptions taken in all parts of the country. Then the 6th Regiment band began playing the National air, and the General stepped forward and unveiled the statue, amid the applause of the multitude.
As the veil fell to the ground there was revealed to the spectators a statue of General Grant, of imposing design and artistic execution. The statue is a bronze military figure of heroic size, nine feet high, upon a polished granite pedestal of equal height. The left foot is slightly advanced, and the left hand holds a paper of official appearance, to which points the right forefinger. A slouch hat, which all the army veterans recognized at once as Grant's army hat, covers the head.
The figure is draped in a long military coat, the cape thrown back over the shoulders. The pedestal of the statue is a monolith, four feet square and five feet high, the top encircled with a wreath of a laurel leaves in relief. On the front is a tablet inscribed with the names of the battles in which Grant was engaged. The rear of the monolith bears a sculptured figure of Grant and his aide-de-

AT WORK ON THE NEW OPERA HOUSE.

There are two gangs of men working days, nights and Sundays on the handsome new Harlem Opera House, to get it completed by September 30, when Daniel Frohman's "The Wife" company opens the house. The proprietor, Oscar Hammerstein, is under a bond of $2,000 to have the theatre ready to open on the 30th, and although one can see that there is a great deal of work to be done before it is really to open, Mr. Hammerstein is confident that it will be ready. The sale of seats for the opening night will begin at 6 o'clock to-morrow morning, and there are applications on file in the box office already for several hundred seats. Mr. Hammerstein has also bought three lots direct west of the theatre and has already begun the building of three stories, which he asserts will be as handsome as any building used for business purposes in Harlem.

SIGNS OF REVIVING CLUB LIFE.

The lack of places of amusement in Harlem, it being, as some of the residents say, like a big country town in some respects, made it natural that numerous clubs and lodges should spring up there. On the East Side lodges are in the majority, but on the West Side numerous campaign clubs were formed during the recent campaign, and after it was over the members found the clubs such congenial places to go to that nearly nine-tenths of the campaign clubs were formed into permanent organizations. The clubs are still political organizations, the members of each one belonging as a rule to one party; still politics is not an important factor in them now. Sociability is the chief object. They have already begun to show signs of the return of the winter season and the members gather at the club-houses in the evening to discuss the news of the day and tell of the big fish they caught during their summer's outing. Even in the afternoon at the strictly social clubs, of which the Harlem Club easily stands at the head, a few members are seen about the place. The lodges are making active preparations for the numerous entertainments which are to be given during the early winter.

WAITING FOR THEIR NEW GYMNASIUM OPENING.

The one event which is most talked about by the members of the Young Men's Christian Association is the grand formal opening of the gymnasium on September 27. The classes in the gymnasium have already begun their work. The boys' class began on Friday afternoon, and hereafter will be in session from 3:15 to 5 p. m. each Monday and Friday. At the opening speeches will be made by the Rev. Dr. Josiah Strong, the secretary of the American Evangelical Alliance, and ex-Secretary of the Treasury Fairchild. After speaking there will be a gymnasium exhibition. Later in the season William Blake, of "How to Get Strong" fame, will lecture to the classes.

The day after the opening the second annual autumn games of the athletic department of the Young Men's Christian Association of New-York will be held at the association's grounds at One-hundred-and-fiftiethst., near the Harlem River, in Mott Haven. The games will begin at 2:30 p. m. The following are the different contests: 100 yards run, handicap; 220 yards run, handicap; 440 yards run, handicap; one mile run, handicap; 220 yards hurdle race, handicap; running broad jump, handicap; running high jump, handicap; putting sixteen-pound shot, handicap, and two-mile bicycle race, handicap.
Handsome gold medals will be awarded to winners of first prize and silver medals to second prize winners. Entries may be made at any of the branches of

DROWNED ON HIS WEDDING DAY.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Thomas Cullinan and Miss Kittie Newman were to have been married on Wednesday at St. Bridget's Church, in the First Ward. The bride, bridesmaids, priest and spectators were all on hand promptly, but the bridegroom was missing, and the marriage was put off. Cullinan and his sweetheart spent Tuesday evening together, and when he went home he left instructions to be called early.
Since then no one has seen him until his body was found in the lake by some fisherman this morning.
It is thought to be a case of suicide, but no reason for such an act is known. Cullinan had a house furnished and seemed to be looking forward with pleasure to his wedding. Miss Newman is prostrated with grief.

A CONSTABLE SHOT BY A YOUNG BUFFALO.

Sparta, Ill., Sept. 14.—John McCully, a young ruffian of this town, shot and killed Constable William Crossin at a picnic a few miles east of here yesterday afternoon. McCully had drawn a revolver on a companion named Mitchell, when Crossin interfered and was shot. McCully was arrested.

CAPTAIN ROSS, THE INDIAN FIGHTER, DYING.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 14.—Captain Ross, the noted Indian fighter, father of Governor L. S. Ross, is dying at his home in Waco. The Governor left for his side last night.